Brian Sanders

Dear Brian,

Thank you for writing to me regarding Senate Bill 237. Like you, I believe that Maryland motorcyclists deserve the freedom of deciding whether or not they should wear a helmet.

Unfortunately, the bill was voted unfavorably during a recent voting session in the Judicial Proceedings Committee. I voted for the bill to pass. It is interesting to note that one of the bill's cosponsors, Senator Jill Carter, decided to vote against the bill despite being a cosponsor. It is my hope that next year we can pass this bill in committee and hopefully get it through to the Governor's desk.

Sincerely,

Senator Chris West
